

SOUTH DAKOTA

Programs for Adults and Families

Assistance for Low Income Families (LIF)

The LIF program is South Dakota's Medicaid program. It is for parents and their dependent children who live in South Dakota and meet certain low-income requirements.

For more information, call 605-773-4678 or visit <http://dss.sd.gov/medicaleligibility/familieschildren/lif.asp>.

Programs for Children Only

South Dakota's Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP)

South Dakota's CHIP program is for uninsured children under age 19 who live in South Dakota, are not eligible for Medicaid, and whose families meet certain low-income requirements.

For more information, call 800-305-3064 or visit <http://dss.sd.gov/medicalservices/chip>.