

WASHINGTON

Programs for Adults and Families

Washington Medicaid

Washington Medicaid is for children, pregnant women, parents of dependent children and the disabled who live in Washington and meet certain low-income requirements.

For more information, call 800-562-3022 to be directed to your local office or visit www.adsa.dshs.wa.gov/pubinfo/benefits/medicaid.htm.

Basic Health

Basic Health is for adults who live in Washington and meet certain low-income requirements.

For more information, call 800-660-9840 or visit www.basicealth.hca.wa.gov.

Maternity Benefits Program

The Maternity Benefits Program is for pregnant women who live in Washington and meet certain low-income requirements.

For more information, call 800-660-9840 or visit www.basicealth.hca.wa.gov.

Programs for Children Only

Basic Health Plus

Basic Health Plus is for children under age 19 who live in Washington and whose families meet certain low-income requirements.

For more information, call 800-660-9840 or visit www.basicealth.hca.wa.gov.

Washington State Children's Health Insurance Program (SCHIP)

The Washington SCHIP program is for uninsured children under age 19 who live in Washington, are ineligible for Medicaid, and whose families meet certain low-income requirements.

For more information, call 800-204-6429 or visit <http://fortress.wa.gov/dshs/maa/chip>.