

Insure Your Health

SOUTH CAROLINA

Programs for Adults and Families

Healthy Connections

Healthy Connections is South Carolina's Medicaid program. It is for children, pregnant women, parents of dependent children and the disabled who live in South Carolina and meet certain low-income requirements.

For more information, call 888-549-0820 or visit www.dhhs.state.sc.us/dhhsnew/index.asp.

Programs for Children Only

Partners for Healthy Children

Partners for Healthy Children is Medicaid coverage for children under age 19 living in South Carolina whose families meet certain low-income requirements.

For more information, call 888-549-0820 or visit www.workworld.org/wwwwebhelp/medicaid_program_partners_for_healthy_children_south_carolina.htm.

South Carolina Healthy Connections Kids

Healthy Connections Kids is South Carolina's SCHP program. It is for uninsured children under age 19 who live in South Carolina and whose families meet certain low-income requirements.

For more information, call 877-552-4642 or visit www.scchoices.com and click on the "Healthy Connections Kids" box.